

Check Your Environmentally Friendly I.Q.

Answers:

1. True.
2. True. Most reclaimed lumber is used for paneling and flooring
3. False. Engineered wood is a building material made from composite wood that's stronger and more durable than natural wood.
4. False. Greenwashing is falsely promoting a product or service as green.
5. False.
6. False. Dual-flush toilets have two flush options, a normal one for solid waste and one for liquid waste that uses less water per flush.
7. True.
8. False. "Passive solar" is a method of home design that takes advantage of the sun's warmth in winter for heating and limits that energy in summer to reduce cooling needs.
9. False. The closer the rating is to 0, the more energy efficient. A rating of 0 indicates a net-zero energy home.
10. False. ET (Evapo-Transpiration) irrigation uses sensors to measure soil moisture and determine whether watering is necessary.